

ONE-ACTS

LAURA VALPEY - PLAYWRIGHT

Laura Valpey's roots run deep in Improvisational Theater (Freestyle Repertory Theatre, Gotham City Improv, Unexpected Productions). She is a core playwright/regular cast member of the monthly show WRITE AWAY (Synergy Theater, Freestyle Repertory Theatre), where all of tonight's plays were born! Productions: TOO-SMALL, TOO-TIGHT TUTU (Queens Short Play Festival at The Secret Theatre, NYC), TO GO, OR NOT TO-GO (Malvern Theatre Company, Melbourne, Australia), WHERE'S THE BABY? (Spark Creative Works, virtual production). Staged reading: WHERE'S THE BABY?! (PARENTING IN PIECES) (The Barrow Group Student Playwright Residency). Laura has been a member of The Barrow Group community since 2007, and currently studies playwriting with Arlene Hutton.

BLAIRE O'LEARY- DIRECTOR

Blaire O'Leary is a theatre artist, teaching artist at The Barrow Group, and casting professional. As a co-founding member of the Brooklyn-based Exquisite Corpse Company, she produced and cast numerous large scale immersive productions, workshops and developmental readings in New York, Philadelphia, New Orleans and Colorado. She is a Casting Director & Associate for theatre and indie film; upcoming credits include Claws (dir. The Adams Brothers) and All Day Happy Dance (dir. John F. Sullivan) both to be released 2027. She also currently runs a casting program at the SAG-AFTRA Foundation. She has been in, around and about The Barrow Group since 2010 and is very excited to collaborate with these awesome TBG artists on these new plays.

CHRISTINA TEDDER - STAGE DIRECTIONS

Christina Tedder googled “best acting class in NYC”, clicked the first not-sponsored link, and signed up for Beginner I at The Barrow Group. Was it search engine optimization or fate? From that first class two years ago to performing on stage this summer in plays for the first time in 25 years, acting at The Barrow Group felt like coming home. Christina first fell in love with acting by way of annual school productions throughout her youth but she studied international politics and went on to a career in international development and tech. A Returned Peace Corps Volunteer, Christina loves a challenge and dreams of one day being the least famous person to host SNL.

SNOW GLOBE

ALEXANDRA ADAOLISA - DARLA

Alexandra is an actress, writer, and a first-generation Jamaican-American born in Queens and raised in Brooklyn. She holds a BA in Theater and Journalism from Rutgers University and an MFA in Acting from East 15 Acting School. Alexandra has performed with Car Crash Productions at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and the Drayton Arms Theatre, and currently performs with the dance theater company Your Faithful Reader.

EVAN MILLER - BARRY

Evan is excited to be making his first theatrical performance since high school. He is a recovering lawyer and present student at The Barrow Group and he is extraordinarily grateful to The Barrow Group and the playwrights (and especially Laura Valpey) for the opportunity to perform. Evan sends all his love and thanks to his wonderful son and partner for their care and encouragement.

MIKE SAUSE - ALEC

Mike Sause is an actor originally from Cincinnati, Ohio. He is a proud Barrow Group alum. Some favorite gigs include performing Macbeth with Drunk Shakespeare off-Broadway, as the Ghost/Player King in a production of Hamlet in Queens last year, and the role of Matt in "Christie," a new adaptation of Eugene O'Neill's "Anna Christie." He's also performed hundreds of sketch comedy and improv shows in some of the finest theaters (and dingy bar basements) all around the city. When he's not performing, you can find him obsessing over his dog, Mishti, annoying his partner, Sriya, or screaming at any television that has one of his Cincinnati teams playing on it. Who Dey!

ELIZABETH BOVE - LINDA

Acting credits include Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Doubt, And Then There Were None, The Wild Duck, Romeo and Juliet, Law & Order and every New York Soap Opera. Film credits on imdb.com.
